	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
1 Story Sunday! Read Professor Astro Cat's Stargazing by Dominic Walliman.	2 Read Spot and Say Farm , illustrated by Anne Passchier.	3 Singable books are fun to share together. Try Der Glumph Went the Little Green Frog by Matt Shanks.	4 Make and decorate a paper crown and read The Paper Bag Princess by Robert Munsch.	5 Borrow a fairytale book from your library and read it together.	6 Look at a world map or globe and find Australia. Point out where you live.	7 Make sandcastles! Talk about how the sand feels. What happens when you mix sand with water?
8 Story Sunday! Read Move Your Body by Beci Orpin.	9 Read Goodnight World by Nicola Edwards. How do you say goodnight?	10 Sing "Wash Your Dirty Hands" as you get ready for meals.	11 Ask your child to "read" you a story you have read to them many times.	12 When reading with your child, ask them questions like "What could happen next?"	13 Make a sensory box. Fill it with items like sandpaper, cotton wool and crumpled cellophane.	14 Read The Dot by Peter H. Reynolds. Paint or draw a dot as a starting point for your own picture.
15 Story Sunday! Read Zoom, Rocket, Zoom! by Margaret Mayo.	16 How many words can you think of that rhyme with "log"?	17 Sing and act out "Mr Frog Jumped Out of His Pond One Day".	18 Action rhymes help little hands build strength for writing.	19 Point out the letters of your child's name in signs that you see today.	20 Play catch and throw with a scarf. What shape and colour is the scarf?	21 Paint on ice blocks. What happens to the paint as the ice starts to melt?
22 Story Sunday! Read Who Sank the Boat? by Pamela Allen.	23 Can you laugh like a kookaburra?	24 Sing the "Hokey Pokey". Put your left hand, right leg and whole self in!	25 Do some dot painting using fingers, and then cotton tips.	26 Read Jack and the Beanstalk by Matt Ottley.	27 Have a tea party for your toys. What is your favourite tea party food?	28 Read Love is a Tutu by Amy Novesky. Can you point your toes like a ballet dancer?
29 Story Sunday! Read A Pig is Big by Douglas Florian.	30 Talk with your toddler about what is the same and what is different between two familiar things.	31 Say rhymes and sing songs with your child in the language that is most comfortable for you.
